Monthly Bulletin Article – December, 2005

No matter how large or small our Sisterhood is, each and every member is important. We cannot all participate at the same level because we do not all have the same abilities, but every single one of us can help in some capacity. And there is strength when we work together.

The Jewish volunteer has always been special – the backbone of our continuing culture and traditions. It is because of the volunteers of previous generations that we found a functioning organization to join. Now it is our responsibility to provide for those younger than we are, for it is our duty to provide for the coming generations.

Our culture has existed for so long; traditions have continued. This continuity is due to everyone in our Sisterhood. We must help the younger generations to learn what volunteers past have given to us, so that we may continue to go l'dor vador, from generation to generation!

Please look at the calendar in this Bulletin for December 2005 and January 2006 Sisterhood events and ...

Please join us in these future events and be a part of our Sisterhood ... we look forward to it!

Shalom - Maggie Diamond, Sisterhood President
